

Roman capitals

With Gyounghee Lee

English (or Latin) calligraphy starts with Roman capitals and finishes with them, I reckon. Many know that Trajan letters are the mother of Latin alphabets and near perfect. And we all are trying hard to achieve that gracefulness which is 2000years old. It is not easy! Many of us are afraid of them, frustrated with them, and admire them! It takes long time to learn the Roman ways. But we must start somewhere (and should keep going). Why not today?
